

HOME AND GARDEN SHOW TO RETURN TO DETROIT
HGTV's "Rehab Addict" Nicole Curtis To Speak At The Event

DETROIT (September 16, 2019) – For the first time since 2003, the City of Detroit will host a major home and garden show when The Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show, Presented by Rocket Loans, covering 200,000 square feet of exhibit space inside TCF Center (formerly Cobo Center) in Downtown Detroit, is held March 21-22nd 2020.

"The time is right for an event like this to come back to the City. The Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show will be for everyone in Metro Detroit – city and suburbs," said Mark Nicholson, the Show's producer. "The show is the perfect opportunity for homeowners to see all of the latest trends and connect face-to-face with hundreds of local home improvement professionals. We're looking forward to a great weekend in the City of Detroit."

HGTV's "Rehab Addict" Nicole Curtis will be speaking twice on Saturday at the event.

The Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show will allow homeowners from throughout metro Detroit to:

- Save time by connecting face-to face with hundreds of home improvement professionals under one roof
- Save money on all their home improvement projects by taking advantage of tremendous "show only" discounts from exhibitors
- See all the latest trends in home remodeling and interior design
- Enjoy appearances by national and local home improvement celebrities
- Learn from DIY experts by taking advantage of demonstrations and free seminars
- Enter a variety of home makeover contests, including kitchens and bathrooms
- Shop more than 100 local artisans, whose work will add beauty to any home
- Find out about living options in the City of Detroit with developers showcasing new apartments and condominiums
- Get free in-person appraisals of potential home treasures from antiques experts.

"Rocket Loans is excited to be the presenting sponsor for the Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show and the Macomb Spring Home Show," said Steve Peters, Vice President- Sales for Rocket Loans. "We have seen great things happen here in Detroit and proud to be a part of another instance of that with the restart of the Detroit Home Show."

"With all of the home construction and renovation taking place in Detroit right now, along with the renewed interest in living in the city, it makes perfect sense for the premier home show event to return to Detroit, where it had been based for so many years," said Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan. "We're excited to showcase our city and our great neighborhoods through the show, and we know visitors will be impressed with everything Detroit has to offer."

“Wayne County’s 43 communities offer every kind of experience and opportunity desired by homeowners and we are pleased to welcome the Home and Garden Show to Detroit this March,” said Wayne County Executive Warren C. Evans. “This show reflects the increased demand for home renovation and the overall momentum in Detroit and throughout Wayne County.”

With home renovation throughout the Metro area booming, The Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show creates an opportunity for exhibitors to come face-to-face with thousands of homeowners who are ready to get their home improvement projects started for the new year and:

- Pre-book business for the season
- Meet face-to-face with homeowners who are eager to get their projects started
- Grow business and increase customer base
- Create and build brand awareness
- Network with other industry professionals.

Rocket Loans has recently launched a Contractor Financing Program that allows home improvement specialists to offer Rocket Loans financing to their clients right from the job site. Rocket Loans brings decades of financial services experience and a best in class client experience to the unsecured consumer lending space. To learn more about Rocket Loans Contractor Financing Program, see rocketloans.com/

The Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show is being produced by the Gazette Media Group a Troy-based company that publishes weekly community newspapers and produces a variety of consumer shows and events across Southeast Michigan and the nation.

Information on the Detroit Spring Home & Garden Show is available at www.yourhomeshows.com